

Brian Denton
123 Main Street
City, NC 28540
(123)456-7890
BrianDenton@HSGconsulting.com

SUMMARY

- Four years of experience dealing in preventative maintenance, corrective maintenance and troubleshooting diesel vehicles.
- Skills include knowledge of pneumatic brake systems, power train, drive train, and engine and exhaust systems.
- Effective and influential supervisor and leader.

EXPERIENCE

2016-Present

United States Marine Corps
Diesel Mechanic / Supervisor / HAZMAT and Safety Manager

- Troubleshoot and conducted preventative and corrective maintenance on all aspects of diesel vehicle systems.
- Performed complete rebuild on Cummins, Detroit Diesel, and AM General Diesel engines.
- Performed complete rebuild of transmission, transfers, differentials, and geared hubs for various pieces of Motor Transport equipment to include HMMWV's, 5 ton's, and Logistic Vehicle System (LVS).
- Replaced alternators, brakes, lubrication, and many other tasks.
- Supervised teams of up to 30 personnel to ensure quality maintenance of as many as 21 diesel vehicles.
- Supervise the proper storage, use, and disposal of hazardous materials.
- Responsible for the care and upkeep of over $1 million dollars worth of government property.
- Experienced in Hazardous Material use and storage.
- Won company corporal board for competitive promotion over 4 other lance corporals who were selected for superior performance over all the other lance corporals in the company (approximately 35).

EDUCATION

- 2018 HAZMAT Safety and OSHA Training
- 2017 USMC Maintenance Management Course
- 2016 Fundamentals of Diesel Engines Course
- 2016 USMC Automotive Organizational Maintenance School
- 2016-Present Marine Corps Institute: Courses include fundamentals of leadership, financial management, and basic mechanical principals.
- 2015 Diesel Mechanic/Welding Certificate, Belmont County Joint Vocational School